

Each Year the Muldoon Center for Entrepreneurship gives out two awards:

The Edward M. Muldoon Award for Civic Entrepreneurship recognizes leaders who have distinguished themselves by their leadership position in the community through volunteer, philanthropic, and other actions of significant benefit to Greater Cleveland.

The John J. Kahl, Jr. Award for Creative Leadership recognizes individuals who have distinguished themselves by the sustained application of creative leadership to their businesses or organizations, resulting in above-average growth and improvement.

Past awardees:

	Kahl Award	Muldoon Award
2005	Dr. Frank Navratil	Mr. Samuel Miller
2006	Mr. Charles Koch	Mr. Jack Breen
2007	Dinner was suspended on the death of Mr. Muldoon
2008	Mr. Umberto Fedeli	Mr. A. Malachi Mixon
2009	Mr. John Boler	Dr. Delos M. Cosgrove
2010	Mr. Monte Ahuja	Mr. Christopher Connor